

CDL Third-party Testing

Third party testers are essential in the CDL program for the state of Utah. A tester is a company who sponsors examiners to administer the CDL driving skills test. Examiners are individual employees that work for a tester (company). To apply for the program, individuals must submit the application packet to the Division. Once the application is approved, a certificate is sent to the individual. The certificate must be presented to Salt Lake Community College prior to being placed on the list for the certification class.

Applicants for the Third-party program are required to enter into an agreement with the state, to read and comply with Federal Regulation 49 CFR 383.75, 49 CFR 384.228, Utah Code Ann. 53-3-407, Utah Code Ann. 53-3-407.1 and Utah Administrative Code R708-21

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety. [If other agencies are involved in processing this application, they may have additional routine uses; specifically, some state agencies may share potentially pertinent information, including criminal history information between and among other employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agencies within that state.] This statement will not be included on the FBI's Privacy Statement; however, a state that wishes to participate in the Article IV sharing, must include the information on its privacy statement to ensure the applicant is providing consent, as required by the Article IV requirements.
